It is fair. We should agree.
Concerning the maps - you have to tell her exactly which ones you would like to insert in the book.

Suddenly it becomes more concrete to me….
And I am happy to proceed, are you?

Hi Nili,

The GPO is the Government Press Office לשכת העיתונות הממשלתית. I would hope that this office or IDF archives at the Kirya would have most of the "missing" photos you're looking for. If not, I would have to search Israeli agencies like Flash 90, individual Israeli photographers, and international agencies like Associated Press. I assume that for book reproduction rights they would charge about $100/photo.

I also hope I can find many of the photo credits in the archives of the same governmental offices, if the photos were originally given to Ehud from these official sources. Is there any other information written on the back of the photos, like date or archive code number?

Ned asked if I'm also able to research 2 maps for the book, and I said yes. Did you decide with the publisher about including this with the photo research job?

I propose a price of 4000 shekels to do all the research for 15 "missing" photos, 54 photo credits, and 2 maps. I think this is a fair price, since it's very difficult to estimate how much time will be required. Let me know if you agree and I'll send you a contract. All the best and Shana Tova -- Ricki

I think that most of the pictures were taken during official events and visits by official agencies in Israel or abroad and - if I am not wrong - they need only credit and not purchasing?

All the pictures are without credits. They were given to Ehud via his LISHKA while he was on different duties: army, minister, PM , etc.
I don't know if and/or how many are israeli source and/or foreign one.

I know I am not much of a help, but it is a new area for me.
Please keep asking and I shall try to do my best,
Thanks
Nili
